What we do

He mea tārai e mātou te mātauranga kia rangatira ai, kia mana taurite ai ōna huanga
We shape an education system that delivers excellent and equitable outcomes

We fulfil our purpose by:

- delivering services and support nationally, regionally and locally to and through the education sector and in some cases directly to learners and families.
- shaping the policies, settings and performance of the education system so that it is well placed to deliver equitable outcomes for learners and their families, from early learning through tertiary.

Te Mahau | Education Services

The Education Services Group provides well-designed, integrated education services that support the impactful and effective operation of education settings to support student achievement and participation. The services help to remove barriers to participation and learning and provide regulatory advice, support and oversight to early learning providers, schools and kura.

The Group has three key priorities for Education Services:

- Practice & Guidance: Managing practice and guidance to improve national coordination and consistency, whilst enabling regional autonomy for education service delivery.
- Integration & Delivery: Providing education support directly to education settings via integrated regional and national services. This includes intervening when necessary to ensure a high standard of operation to support student outcomes and owning key stakeholder relationships to support schooling improvement and stronger outcomes for learners.

- Monitoring & Improvement: Monitoring and advising on improvements to the effectiveness, efficiency and equity of services for achievement and progression, and attendance and participation. This includes monitoring education provider performance against regulations and intervening as required.

Role Purpose

The purpose of the Physiotherapist is to provide effective, efficient and equitable physiotherapy services in accordance with the goals, objectives and policies of the Ministry of Education.

Equal Opportunity Statement

The Ministry of Education is an equal opportunity employer committed to fostering a diverse, inclusive, and respectful workplace. We believe that diversity of backgrounds, experiences, and perspectives strengthens our organisation and drives innovation. All employment decisions are based on business needs, job requirements, and individual qualifications, and we strive to ensure a fair and equitable recruitment and employment process.

Working in the Public Service

In the public service we work collectively to make a meaningful difference for New Zealanders now and in the future. We have an important role in supporting the Crown in its relationships with Māori under the Te Tiriti o Waitangi. We support democratic government. We are unified by a spirit of service to our communities and guided by the core principles and values of the public service in our work. You can find out more about what this means; Role and purpose - Te Kawa Mataaho Public Service Commission.

Leadership Success Profile - Public Service Commission

Leadership matters. Strong leadership at every level in the Public Service will transform the experiences of New Zealanders. The Leadership Success Profile establishes “what good looks like” for leadership at all levels. Information about the Leadership Success Profile is available here: Leadership Success Profile - Te Kawa Mataaho Public Service Commission.

In addition, the Ministry expects all leaders to role model behaviours in alignment with the Ministry of Education Leadership Expectations. These are:

- To be driven and accountable
- To be curious, connected and open to different perspectives
- To grow our talent and capability
- To improve transparency – including by listening to and acting on feedback
